PORT CHESTER.

The census of Port Chester has been completed and is being tabulated. It is said that the figures and is being tabiliated. It is said that the lighter will show a population of nearly 8,000 in the village and more than 12,000 if the entire town of Rye is taken into account.

It is expected that if the weather is favorable the Port Chester Electric Railway will begin the construction of its trolley line to Rye Beach this week. The company has received a large consignment of material, and has sufficient men on hand to complete the line rapidly.

MAMARONECK.

A physician who has made an unofficial investigation has found that there have been recently nine cases of typhoid fever in Mamaroneck, and in some cases of typnoid lever in administration and in some cases the patients are still extremely ill. Two persons, one of whom was removed to the Mount Vernon Hospital, have died. The situation has produced uneasiness, and it is probable that unless the spread of the disease is abated the health authorities will be called on to act.

NEW-ROCHELLE.

A man who says that he is William Ryan, twen-ty-four years old, of New-York City, but who has since proved to be William Teed, a convicted burglar, of Bridgeport, Conn., was captured in Pelham Manor on Friday, after having robbed the home of William Ciency and secured a gold watch and papers, the dissemination of information about the other articles of jewelry. His captors were at Paris Exposition of 1900, and the furtherance of other articles of jeweiry. His captors were at work on the railroad near by and, seeing him acting in a suspicious way, intercepted him, and on searching a value he was cerrying found the booty and burglar's tools. Teed was taken to the New-Rochelle police station. He is wanted in Bridgeport for entering the Y. M. C. A. hall and stealing gold medis belonging to the members.

The Rev. and Mrs. W. B. Waller, of the Presbyterian church, gave a reception for members of the congregation last week.

Owing to several other important local affairs last week, the meeting to arrange for the erection of a public building for a symmasium and clubrooms was not well attended, and another meeting of those interested will be held on the night of Tuesday, February 8.

EFFORTS OF HENRY D. PURROY, THE NOTORIOUS

JAW-BREAKER, TO GET INTO TAM-

Henry D. Purroy, the notorious jaw-breaker and "lightning change" Democratic politician, is trying to sneak into the Tammany fold again, after reviling and vilifying his former "chums" and cronies who are leaders in the organization. If he gets back ft will not be the first time he has been allowed to return after describing the Tammany or setter payed. allowed to return after deserting the Tammany orallowed to return after describing the Tammany organization and abusing its leaders. As a politician, now hiside and now outside the Tammany organization, he has been remarkably successful in keeping time of and his relatives in office, supported on large salaries pend by the city. In an interview ing nimself and his relatives in office, supported on large salaries part by the city. In an interview he has declared that his latest boil from Tammany was solely on account of his opposition to John C. Sheeban's methods that he corresponded regularly with Richard Croker when Mr. Croker was in Europe, and prepared the way for Mr. Croker's return to the leadership of the organization. He had, in fact, admitted that he was tale-bearer to Mr. Croker when he was forced out by Mr. Sheeban, and he pleads that office as an excuse for being allowed to get back. The Purroy clan and kin have been among the most persistent and hungry tax-caters ever known in this city or in any other.

OPPOSED TO REMOVING THE FLAGS.

STATE OFFICIALS THINK NEW-YORK'S BATTLE COLORS SHOULD STAY IN ALBANY.

Albany, Jan. 29.-The State authorities do not take kindly to the proposition, advocated by Elihu Root before the Governor yesterday, to remove the battle flags of the New-York regiments which fought in the Civil War from the Military Bureau in this city to the tomb of General Grant. Hugh Hastings, State Historian, said to-day;

"It does not seem to me to be the proper thing to do. Most of the flace in the State Bureau do not bear any connection directly with General Grant. He was a National character, and if there is to be any exhibit at his tomb, it likewise should armies who served under his direct command, and not the flags of all the regiments of any one State.

PRIVATE DETECTIVES ARRESTED.

A MAN WHOM THEY WERE SHADOWING COM-PLAINS TO THE POLICE.

Walter E. Morrell, of No. 248 Eighth-ave., and Joseph Flynn, of No. 2% West One-hundred-and-nineteenth-st., two detectives employed by Charles Heldelberg, an ex-detective-sergeant who runs private investigation agency, were arrested yes-terday in the East Drive of Central Park, on the complaint of a Hebrew named David Goldstein, of No. 19 West One-hundredth-st., who complained to a Park policeman that the mer had been following and annoying him. Goldstein, it had been following and annoying him. Goldstein, it appeared from a statement made at the detective exency later, was formerly a jeweller, doing business at Forty-fourth-st and Ninth-ave. His store was burned out about four years ago and the companies in which it was insured refuse to pay the insurance, and have employed the detective agency to watch Goldstein, whom they suspect of knowing more about the fire than he has yet told. Heidelberg secured buil for his men last evening.

AN ACTOR BURSTS A BLOOD VESSEL Frank Smithson, the actor who originated the part of the Major in "The Girl from Paris" at the Evangeline Cosloy Cisneros, and Commander Booth-Tucker of the Salvation Army.

Herald Square Theatre last season, burst a blood vessel on the stage in Lancaster, Penn. on Friday night. He was playing the part mention travelling company. A dispatch to this effect was received here yesterday by E. E. Rice, the manage of the company, and another by the actor's wife Miss Phoebe Coyne, who was also in the produc tion of 'The Girl from Paris' last year. She started for Lancaster to join her husband yesterday afternoon. The company was engaged to play last night at Harrisburg, and Mr. Smithson's condition was so serious that he had to be left behind at Lancaster.
